Lavonne C. Thomas, Esq. is a multifaceted professional whose career spans law, ministry, and education. As an accomplished attorney, she brings a wealth of knowledge and expertise to her legal practice, guided by a deep commitment to justice and service. Lavonne is also a dedicated on-staff pastor, passionately serving her local church (Living Bread Ministries, Int'l.) for the past 18 years.

Before embarking on her legal and pastoral journey, Lavonne was an educator, drawing from her strong academic background with both a Bachelor's and Master's in Education from Florida A&M University. Her dedication to lifelong learning led her to pursue a Juris Doctorate from Western Michigan University Cooley Law School, further enriching her ability to serve her community in multiple capacities.

Lavonne is a devoted wife of 23 years to Pastor Lepoleon Thomas, Jr. and the proud mother of five children, balancing her professional and personal life with grace and dedication. Her family is a testament to her nurturing spirit and unwavering commitment to those she loves.

In addition to her professional roles, Lavonne is passionate about the study and teaching of the Word of God. She believes that prayer is foundational in every believer's life and actively shares this conviction through H.O.S.T, a monthly corporate prayer session she leads. These sessions, available to a wider audience via YouTube and Facebook, reflect her desire to connect with and uplift God's people through prayer and spiritual growth.

Lavonne C. Thomas embodies a life dedicated to living for Jesus Christ, service, and education, continually inspiring those around her to lead lives rooted in prayer and power.
