Briana McCarthy is a devoted follower of Jesus with a deep passion for seeing the church thrive. She holds a Bachelor's in Christian Ministry with an emphasis on Biblical Studies from Trinity International University and a Master of Theology and Ministry from Fuller Theological Seminary.

Briana serves as the Director of Engagement for African American Ministries at Our Daily Bread Ministries, where she works to cultivate meaningful connections and create resources that serve the Black Church and broader faith community. She is also the founder of The Brilliant Tribe, a Chicago-based discipleship organization that hosts events and develops resources to help the body of Christ grow in their walk with God.

She has served with nationally recognized organizations such as the Jude 3 Project and the AND Campaign. Briana's heart is for discipleship—equipping believers to walk faithfully and boldly in their calling. Whether teaching, mentoring, or developing Christ-centered content, she is committed to building up the body of Christ and helping people grow in their relationship with God.
