Celeste Nantambu is a multifaceted creative whose talents span music, writing, and visual arts. A devoted Christian, wife, mother, and proud grandmother of ten, Celeste finds inspiration in her faith, family, and the beauty of creation. Her life and work are anchored in the truth of John 1:16 —"From His fullness we have all received, grace upon grace."

Celeste co-founded Penny's Ministries alongside her sisters more than 15 years ago with the mission of empowering women with their true identity in Christ. The ministry now has a presence on Facebook, where it encourages women through faith-filled and uplifting content. She also led Celestial Sounds, a Christian singing ministry, for over 15 years, touring throughout Michigan and neighboring states. Her music ministry produced two albums, Faithful and In This Very Room, and she co-authored two faith-based books: Penny's Kids and My New Identity in Christ.

After retiring from music ministry, Celeste discovered a passion for painting, which flourished during the challenges of the COVID-19 pandemic. She studied visual art at Wayne County Community College and became a member of the Downriver Creative Art Society, mentored by artist Maureen Keast. Her artwork has been featured in several galleries, including the Hannah Center Art Gallery and WCCCD's Ford Art Gallery. Her 2025 solo exhibition, Expressions of Life, Culture, and Identity, celebrates her journey through life, art, and faith.

Today, Celeste continues to share her heart through Celestial Creations, her growing collection of artwork rooted in beauty, light, and faith. She remains committed to encouraging others, sharing God's Word, and living in the abundance of God's grace.
