

Gena Harris Lewis

Servant Leader | Adjunct Professor

Sis. Gena Harris. A resident of Redford Michigan, Gena Lewis is a conference speaker, workshop facilitator; and an Adjunct Professor for Moody Bible Institute-Michigan Regional Classrooms where she teaches Biblical Lay Counseling. Gena is a graduate of Spring Arbor University, where she earned a master's degree in Family Studies. She is a certified Family Life Educator, and a graduate of the DeVos Urban Youth Initiative. Gena has over thirty years of professional experience working with individuals and families. Gena is employed with Neighborhood Legal Services Michigan as the Program Manager for Project First and Next Step. These programs assist survivors of Domestic Violence, and Human Trafficking. Gena's career and ministry involves assisting individuals and families through and out of the cycle of poverty and abuse. Gena also is a former member of Metropolitan Community Tabernacle, whereby Gena served in the Sunday School Department, Youth and Women's Ministries.

Gena is married to Thomas Lewis; they worship at Scott Memorial United Methodist Church. Gena is dedicated to women's ministries, she has a true commitment to biblical family values, spiritual wellness and the education of individuals toward these ends.

And Gena's Beloved Scripture Verse:

“Trust in the LORD with all thine heart;
and lean not unto thine own understanding. In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths.”

Proverbs 3:5-6
