

Kimberly Salley

Business Accountant | Executive Director | Servant Leader

Kimberly Salley was born and raised on the Southside of Chicago, and is a graduate of Howard University with a Bachelor's Degree in Accounting, and worked in Corporate Accounting/Treasury for many years. She received her MBA from Northwestern University, Kellogg School of Business. She has served on community, corporate and nonprofit boards in Treasury positions and held various leadership positions in various organizations. Kimberly has been a founding member of two church plants inclusive of her current church: New Life Christian Fellowship, and founded a Christian Non-Profit Organization to advocate for youth in Chicago Heights, IL.

Kimberly is currently the Executive Director of Sunshine Gospel Ministries. She is a servant leader who has over 25 years of experience developing, implementing, and running programs for youth and families. As an advocate for equity and justice, she values and considers it a necessary catalyst to engage with community members and leaders to discuss ways to elicit change and sustainability that can eradicate challenges and invoke unity that empowers the implementation of strategies, goals and plans that will hopefully yield viable and equitable solutions, resources, opportunities, and support.

Kimberly has been married for 38 years to Christopher Salley, Senior Pastor and Founder of New Life Christian Fellowship; they have four adult children. Kim finds great strength in I Chronicles 28:20 which says, “Be strong and courageous and do the work. Do not be afraid or discouraged, for the Lord God, my God is with you,” which reminds, strengthens and renews her belief that TRUST (in God) reverses the detours of adversity into the highways of destiny.
